Secretary Sewall owns the horses and carriages which were the property of President Lincoln during his administration. They occasionally appear in the streets of Auburn, and Mr. Lincoln's coachman still holds the reins.

A lottery has just been drawn in Vermont, and among the prizes were 8,000 gill rings, worth half a cent, and 150 empty flour barrels, while one young man, who held $200 worth of tickets, drew a blue edged plate.
